Pensions are not payable abroad.

Old-age grant: Payable to insured persons at the normal retirement age with less than 240 months of contributions.

Disability pension: Permanently disabled with 12 months of contributions in the last 36 months and incapable of any gainful employment. The disability must be certified by a qualified and recognized medical officer and the regional medical board.

Pensions are not payable abroad.

Disability grant: A lump sum is paid if the insured is ineligible for the pension.

Survivor pension: Payable for the death of the insured before retirement or a pensioner younger than age 72.

Eligible survivors are dependents designated by the insured.

Pensions are not payable abroad.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension: The minimum pension is 50% of the insured's average annual salary in the 3 best years of earnings. The pension is increased by 1.5% for each 12-month period or 0.125% for each month of contributions beyond 240 months.

The minimum pension is 125,000 cedi a month.

The maximum pension must not exceed 80% of average earnings of the top 5% of contributing members.

The insured may opt to take 25% of the present value of the pension as a lump sum.

Early pension: A percentage of the full pension (from 60% to 90%) depending on the insured's age at retirement.

Benefit adjustment: Pensions are reviewed annually on the basis of the average increase in the salaries of contributors to the scheme.

Old-age grant: A lump sum equal to the value of total contributions, plus interest set at 50% of the prevailing government treasury rate.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension: The minimum pension is 50% of the insured's average annual salary in the 3 best years of earnings. The pension is increased by 1.5% for each 12-month period or by 0.125% for each month of contributions beyond 240 months.

Benefit adjustment: Pensions are reviewed annually on the basis of the average increase in the salaries of contributors to the scheme.

Disability grant: A lump sum equal to total contributions plus interest.

Survivor Benefits

If the insured was a pensioner at the time of death, a lump sum is paid calculated on the present value of the pension that would have been received after the date of death until age 72. If the insured was not a pensioner but had 240 months of contributions, a lump sum is paid equal to the present value of 12 years' pension; with less than 240 months of contributions, the lump sum is reduced according to the number of months of contributions.

The present value of the pension is calculated using the prevailing treasury bill rate of interest.

Benefit adjustment: Pensions are reviewed annually on the basis of the average increase in the salaries of contributors to the scheme.
